The Litigation Section of the State Bar of California and the Association of Business Trial Lawyers of San Diego are presenting this “brown bag” luncheon during which members of the bar can meet and socialize with a member of the California judiciary in a small and intimate setting.

The lunch will be held January 24, 2008, from noon to 1:00 p.m., in Courtroom A. Judge Battaglia will discuss the rules and realities of e-discovery in the context of practice before the Federal Court; how things really work: the newly renumbered rules (as of December 1, 2007); and 10 tips to manage your way through this troublesome and confusing area.

The program is open to all members of the State Bar Litigation Section and the ABTL. Space is limited. Those interested in attending should register no later than January 22, 2008, by contacting Charles V. Berwanger of Gordon & Rees at cberwanger@gordonrees.com or Oni Bell, Mr. Berwanger’s assistant, at obell@gordonrees.com. Seating is available “first come, first served.” Finally, you should bring your own lunch.

This event is approved for one hour of MCLE credit.
